SRI Internet portal expanding

Digital link to the home country

The www.swissinfo.org home page is continually growing, and feedback is overwhelming. One million visits from over 100 countries prove that "SRG SSR idée suisse" has addressed a major need.

Under "swissinfo" Swiss Radio International brings its multilingual range of "SRG SSR idée suisse" radio and TV stations to the Internet. Anyone with no radio or TV reception, or who has missed the "Tagesschau" at 19.30 Swiss time, or wants to watch a programme again, should check out www.swissinfo.org.

News in multimedia format

New: on the German page you can now call up SF DRS's "Tagesschau" and Radio DRS's well-known "Echo der Zeit", and on the French page Television Suisse Romande's "Téléjournal". In addition the home page offers Italian and Portuguese-language programmes.

"swissinfo" also offers the radio programmes of SRI as well as the day's top stories in English. All language versions feature a 24-hour news ticker as well as specials on extraordinary events, including dossiers for rapid insight into the topic. If you have missed something, you can find it in our archives. Just go to "Search" and enter the relevant key word.

Planning a trip to Switzerland and want to find out about concerts, exhibitions, trade fairs etc.? The "swissinfo" events calendar contains information on over 10,000 events. Over 6000 Swiss Internet links and addresses are listed according to category by our editorial staff. And if you feel like a chat, enter our "Chat" forum to talk to people all over the world.

Free Swiss account

Now you can also register an e-mail address under "swiss-info", for free access to your e-mail via the web browser. Enter <http://freemail.swissinfo.org>, and get your address now! The range of "swissinfo" services is continually being expanded.
