Montreal Swiss Women's Club Edelweiss

Once again our members participated in the Swiss National Day celebrations at Mont Sutton. A group of our ladies, along with some family members and friends worked mainly at the Chalet, selling tombola and food tickets, souvenirs, lampions, etc. Others worked in other areas where needed around the site. A special thank you goes to those members who not only worked on Saturday, but Friday and/or Sunday as well.

A coffee afternoon was held at the home of Susanna Hane at the end of June. Although the damp weather did not permit those attending to enjoy the lovely garden, a very pleasant afternoon was enjoyed by all!

Our annual bazaar will be held on Saturday, November 6, 2010 in the Treffpunkt Hall at 375 Louise-Lamy, Dorval, from 10:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m. This fundraiser has become more than just a bazaar, but a social event as well and allows us to support local charities as well as ill, elderly or other Swiss people in need. We hope you can attend.

Montreal Matterhorn Swiss Club

The Matterhorn Club continues to grow and we still welcome new members each year. We enjoy various social events during each season.

Our club helped out at Mont Sutton for the 1st of August celebrations, and we were very pleased with the participation from our members. They could be found working at the chairlift, the entrance, the games, etc. Several members deserve special thanks for their help with the setting up on Friday and the dismantling of the site on Sunday.

At the time of this submission, plans are under way for another fun Herbst Bummel to be held in early October.

New members are always welcome.

Ottawa Valley Swiss Club*News from the Ottawa Valley Swiss Club (OVSC) Inc in 2010

To date, 2010 is a busy year for the OVSC. We had a very successful Swiss-German Theatre Night on April 10th as the Theatre Section of the Toronto Swiss Club presented a very nice comedy. On April 24th the Montagna Singers hosted the Spring Dance. We had our annual Golf tournament on June 20th in Pakenham organized by Mr. Graf and Mr. and Mrs. Rivas. On June 29th, the membership approved proposed By-Laws at a Special General Meeting.

In partnership with the Seaway Valley Swiss Club, and with the active participation of the Embassy of Switzerland, we celebrated in style the 1st of August on the Winiger Farm in Chesterville: the Group Trumburi came from Uri to provide very pleasant instrumental music; our own Montagna Singers sang folkloric Swiss songs at different times throughout the event; both the Seniors and the Swiss Parents assisted in various activities to ensure the success of the event.

Throughout the year, the Swiss Seniors Club delivered without

LETTER FROM THE PRAIRIES

On October 17, 2010, I will be stepping down as president of the Swiss Club Saskatoon after 31 almost uninterrupted years. I initiated this club with a simple letter inviting the Swiss of Saskatchewan to a meeting in Saskatoon in the spring of 1979. It resulted in the formation of a full-fledged club less than half a year later.

Swiss people are not usually drawn to a landscape that is so totally void of mountains such as Saskatchewan, and therefore, very few ever settled here. However, of those who did, just about everyone who was living within a reasonable distance of Saskatoon became a member of the club. This was a surprise as well as a real boon.

Then came another surprise. Before our very eyes, the members who consisted of people from all walks of life, who did not even previously know each other, began to bond and they formed lasting friendships. It will remain etched in my memory forever how, in spite of the group's wide diversity, people started to clue into one another's experiences, one another's hopes, wants and needs. This then became the foundation of a club in which a great deal of caring takes place. My own attachment to the members grew to the point where I gained an entire new extended family in Saskatchewan. What a gift! To think that at least in the beginning, the only thing we all had in common was the fact that we all originated from that beloved tiny mountainous country in the heart of Europe called Switzerland!

For over ten years now, there has hardly been any direct immigration to Saskatchewan from Switzerland. Gone are the days of the seventies when quite a number of freshly-baked Swiss professors were hired to teach at our two universities. And gone are also the eighties when a number of fresh young Swiss farm families established themselves here, bringing along their valuable education from the Swiss agricultural schools.

In recent years, the challenge has been to meet the needs of the second-generation of the original immigrants who now, to our delight, represent a high proportion of our membership. Without exception, these young people are married to Canadians and therefore English has increasingly become the preferred language even in our private conversations. As time goes on, this shift will become more and more pronounced. However, it is especially encouraging to observe that among young couples, it often is the Canadian spouse who is most keenly interested in passing on some Swiss traditions to their children. This bodes very well for the future of the Swiss Club Saskatoon.

It has been an amazing ride of thirty-one years. These years included no less than 200 organized events, maybe more. A big thank you to the dozens of committee members, whose work throughout the years was essential for the smooth operation of the club. To all club members I say, thank you for electing me year after year and for lending me your trust for so long. I am convinced that with members like ours, the integrity of this lovely club will endure for a long time to come. I wish everyone well.

Louise Grassmann

CH – Concert Tour 2010

It has been an eventful spring and summer, beginning with our Springfest on May 7th. The concert was very successful and was a great tune up for our trip to Switzerland.

On June 17th we flew to Zurich and began our fifth tour of home away from Canada. The first few days were filled with four concerts; Andelfingen, Wallisellen, Sachseln and Langenthal. Andelfingen and Wallisellen were with old friends from previous visits. Andelfingen was also an introduction to the Schweizer Jugendchor and they were very impressive. This audition choir from across Switzerland is a credit to the nation and competent across many genres.

In Sachseln we combined with Heinz de la Torre, the great horn player in a rendition of Chuehreheli, a piece written for us by Swiss Composer Hans Kennel in 1985. Our hosts were the Maennerchor Sachseln/Giswil.

In the days following we visited old friends and family. For all of us, including our non-Swiss members it was a chance to enjoy exceptional hospitality. Our tour of the Bundeshaus in Bern was, for me, very instructive. The system is one I would like to study more closely as I find much to recommend it.

This was the first time to spend time in hostels. They ranged from hotel-like in Locarno to rustic in Gruyere. We sang with Le Choeur des Armaillis de la Gruyere, whom we have long admired and with the delightful Coro Castelgrande (Bellinzona) where at the "Afterglow" we engaged in a lively "Call and Response" sing-a-long.

On Canada's National Day, we visited and sang with our long time friends from the Maennerchor Engelburg. As always their hospitality was most generous and gracious.

We ascended ski hills and mountains where the views were spectacular. Our meals at the chalets fulfilled the promise of Switzerland. We even had the pleasure of singing at the wedding of the son of Karl Strickler (a choir member) and Marianne Binder (the daughter of Max Binder, a parliamentarian).

Our tour ended with a barbeque hosted by Mannerchor Huetten, after which members went on their way, either back to Canada or to continue visiting other places in Switzerland or Europe. Will there be another tour? I certainly hope so.

Once again, for the 5th time, our charming and most talented bus driver & friend Xaver showed us many new and different areas of Switzerland. To top it off, we were treated by Xaver at his neighbor's place to a most enjoyable lunch. Thank you very kindly.

Dave Leigh

P.S. For more information about joining the choir, any of our events or for purchasing one of our 4 CD's, please check our webpage at: <http://www.esmc.ab.ca> or write to: secretary@esmc.ab.ca

Our next major concert is our annual Winzerfest, Saturday, Nov. 6th, 2010.
