Though far away, we all are still greatly interested in the welfare of our dear old homeland, and in the variations of the manifold industries. It is always pleasing to note an improvement no matter how small. Official statistics regarding the Hotel industry show an average traffic of 22.2% for the first half of December, and of 60.3% for the second half of the month. This means an increase of 25% and 33% respectively compared with December of the previous year.

A SCHWYZ. The people of this canton may boast with just pride of the interesting fact that the district of Hoefen has been the home of wine culture for nearly 800 years. After a decision regarding a subsidy for grapevine plantings in the canton Schwyz by the federal authorities, a Geneva paper remarked that it was waste of money to plant vines where pinecones only grew. The "Einsieden Anzeiger" retorted that their beloved fellow citizens of that western corner of Switzerland could do much worse than to wash down those bitter pills, results of financial and political mismanagement, with some of the good old Schwyzer Rachenputzer.

On the Italian Border of Switzerland smuggling is still going on very extensively. Near the Simplan in the canton of Valais, a band of Smugglers, when crossing the frontier, were surprised by Italian customs officials. A very hasty retreat into Swiss territory by the law-breakers resulted in their loss of 780 kilos of coffee which was confiscated by the Italian officials.
