in New Zealand.

AUCKLAND, 1st OCTOBER, 1937.

3rd Year. Vol. 1.

COMMITTEE ELECTIONS.

The following are the results of the ballot for a newly constituted Committee of our Society.

E. Merz, President.	22
W. Ungemuth, Secretary	22
F. Steyer, Committee member for Auckland	13
John Steiner " " " Waikato	19
R. Meier " " " Opotiki and Whakatane		}	16
J. Steiner, Mahoe " " " Taranaki			15
E. Cattin " " " Wellington			14

These seven members constitute the standing committee, each representing his own district.

Votes have also been cast for the following Society members :

G. Kerler	for Auckland	8
J. J. Sax	for Whakatane	3
K. Steiner	for Waikato	1
J. Maurer	for Auckland	1
B. Zurcher	for Wellington	2

With the 1st. October, the Swiss Benevolent Society in New Zealand, now a Group of the NEUEN HELVETISCHEN GESELLSCHAFT, is starting their third year of existence. It is with great pride we can look back to the time when our Society was founded. Our membership is now only a few short of the one hundred mark. Gradually we are gaining the confidence of our fellow countrymen and we hope that with a representative in each district, we shall be able to report progress again in a year's time. To Mr. J. Steiner, our member for the Waikato, we wish to express our special appreciation for the unselfish way he has assisted us. He has spared neither time nor expense in the endeavour to increase our membership and we are very pleased that our little community has returned him as a committee member.

We take this opportunity to remind our members that their subscription for the year is due on the 1st. October, and may be forwarded to the Secretary.
