CELEBRATIONS IN NEW ZEALAND.

The Swiss Consulate at Wellington will be closed on the first and second of August. In commemoration of the occasion the Swiss Flag will be hoisted on the building on both days.

A congratulatory cable message will be despatched in the name of the members of the Swiss Benevolent Society in New Zealand to the President of the Swiss Confederation, Mr. Ernst Wetter, in time to reach him at Schwyz for the official celebrations. Special greetings will be included to General Guisan for the Army. A cable will be sent also to the Swiss Club of New South Wales at Sydney, who are arranging a banquet for the evening of August 1, at Farmers', Sydney.

At Auckland our fellow-countrymen will celebrate the occasion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Peyer, and a representative gathering is expected.

In the Waikato, two celebration parties will be held in the evening of August 2. The Swiss of Waihou, Te Aroha, Morrinsville, Paeroa and Thames will gather at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Steiner, Waihou, while the Swiss community of Springdale will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Werder. The musical and gastronomic items of the planned programme sound enticing.

The Swiss community at Wellington will celebrate in one of the Club Rooms of the Evening Post Building, also on the 2nd of August. The musical programme is in charge of the able musicians Messrs. Max Bruelisauer, Hermann Schlatter and Karl von Rickenbach, whereas Mr. Tony Komminoth will don the white cap of chef de cuisine and pastry-cook.

COMMEMORATION SOUVENIRS.

Orders for Commemoration Souvenirs (Commemoration Booklets, Memorial Tableaux, Commemoration Coins, see June issue "Helvetia") can still be placed with the Consulate of Switzerland at Wellington, P.O. Box 386. 100 Independence Day Badges and 100 Independence Day Picture Cards have now arrived. They are unusually attractive, the Badge (sh. 2/-) being a true replica of the Seal of Schwyz of 1291, and the Picture Card (6d.) representing a Swiss Aelpler, holding the Swiss Flag. The following fellow-countrymen have been supplied with a number of these Commemoration Souvenirs for fellow-countrymen who like to have them: Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Engelberger, Kapuni; Mr. and Mrs. John Steiner, Eastport Road, Waihou; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Werder, Springdale; Mr. and Mrs. A. Peyer, 48, Moa Road, Point Chevalier; Auckland; Dr. Walter Schmid, c/o Swiss Consulate, Wellington.
