—THE SWISS OBSERVER

Laugh a little . . .

Not truly communist: "The wife of East German boss Ulbricht is in gaol."

"Ah. Why?"

"She let her washing dry in the West wind."

"It is statistically proven that out of every 200 people, one is taller than 6 feet."

"Oh. I know that one . . . he always sits in front of me at the pictures."

* * *

"Do you know, Peter, what happens to children who tell lies?"

"Oh, yes auntie, they travel half fare on the railway."

A man comes to the eye specialist and complains that he sees spots before his eyes. The doctor prescribes glasses, and when the patient returns for a check the doctor asks: "Well, is it better now?"

"Yes," says the man, "I see the spots much clearer now."
