APPEAL FOR SUPPORT

DURING THE LAST FINANCIAL YEAR we lost £70 on the editions of our journal "Helvetia."

By comparing the issues of twenty and thirty years ago with four pages at the then ruling subscriptions of 20/- and 25/- with the present production of eight pages and a much more pleasant set-up for an average subscription of 11/6 per year, including 2/6 postage, no other result can reasonably be expected.

To break even we must have another 100 subscribers or raise the subscription. I would prefer to keep to the present price and enlist your co-operation in getting new members.

This newsletter of a monthly circulation of 350 - 400 is not only the sole revenue of the Swiss Society, whose funds are entirely for helping needy compatriots, but also the only communication between the Swiss in New Zealand.

ARNOLD BILAND,
Editor.
