FORTHCOMING EVENTS ★ ★ ★ ★

Auckland Swiss Club

After continuous requests it was decided to have another "Tessiner-Abig" on the 9th May, 1964, at the Edendale School Hall, Sandringham Road, Sandringham.

As before, every care will be given to make this social night a big success with a first-class programme and an excellent band to dance to. To give it a real original appearance the guests are again invited to turn up in the colourful costumes of "Ticino," making it a happy and gay occasion.

Separate programmes with further details will be sent out at a later date. —H.B.

SPECIAL NOTICE

Continuous inquiries come forward from the Alien Police Department, Auckland C.1, regarding Swiss people who either have not registered on their arrival or forgot to inform them when changing their address and jobs. The Police Department has asked me to remind all Aliens to inform the Department immediately when changing address or jobs.

In connection with the above request, anyone who knows the whereabouts of Mr B. Zuber, formerly living at 26a Truro Road, Sandringham, and also Ernst Ronner, please contact Louis Mueller, President of the Auckland Swiss Club, or the Alien Police Department, to register the new address to avoid further inconvenience and possible fine. —A. L. MUELLER

Hamilton Swiss Club

The Hamilton Swiss Club will hold its monthly social evening in the Pine Lodge on May 10th at 8 p.m. Popular music by "The Melody Makers," and good supper. —Sub-Committee No. 1
