Laugh a little . . .

A man is standing in a fish shop where there also stands a basket containing live crayfish. The dog is investigating the basket from too close a range and a crayfish pinches his tail. The dog runs away howling, with the crayfish holding on to its tail. "Whistle back your dog," commands the retailer. "Whistle back your crayfish," replies the man.

The young man: "Surely you would not marry a girl purely for her money?"

The second young man: "No, certainly not, but I also would not have the heart to let her die an old spinster, only because she has money."
