WELLINGTON SWISS CLUB

The attendance at our Club's Annual General Meeting on the 6th April, 1974 was a big improvement on other years, no doubt due to the excellent dinner provided by Mr and Mrs W. Frick before the meeting began.

The election of officers resulted in the following: President, Mrs L. Napp; Vice-President, Mr M. Fuhrer; Treasurer, Mrs R. Messmer; Secretary, Mrs P. Wehrli; Riflemaster, Mr J. Hangartner; Committee, Mr A. Schleicher and Mr F. Wehrli.

The evening concluded with coffee and delicious cakes baked by Mrs M. Tresch.

Holzgang — Pratt

On April 20th, 1974, the marriage between Elfried Emma, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs A. Holzgang, of Te Rerenga, to Frederick Ngakoma, son of Mr Pratt, of Coromandel, took place at St. Colman's Catholic Church, Coromandel.

The bride's gown was on a princess line style with a high neckline made of white nylon, and trimmed with lace. A long veil held in place by a small hat, plus a long flowing train completed the bridal outfit. Misses Louise and Toni Holzgang, sisters of the bride, as bridesmaids wore long frocks with gathered skirts made in red and white spotted cotton, and trimmed with white lace. Both bride and bridesmaids carried white and red long stemmed carnations. The best man was Mr Paul McNeil, and the groomsman Mr Arthur Pratt, brother of the bridegroom. A reception was held first at the Coromandel Town Hall, and later moved to the Te Rerenga Hall and the celebrations went on into Sunday morning. Mr Alf Meier played his accordion many well loved Swiss folk tunes and these were enjoyed by one and all. The happy young couple will live in Coromandel.
