OUR NEW LOGO

The exiting race is still on for our new Auckland Swiss Club Logo. We have just received a big and small change to some of the submitted Logos. Toni withdraw his first Logo and slightly modified his second one. He reckons the Rangitoto upside down is a good way of illustrating that we live down under. From the other entrants we have not heard anymore which probably stands for "everything o.k.". Well, four Logos are in the race. Planed is that we will get you to make the decision until or at our Picnic on 7 February 1993. If you know already which one you like, send as your vote per mail to P.O. Box 40-152, Auckland 10 or come and bring it up to the Farm at the Picnic. The Logo with the most votes... will be it.

GUIDE TO COOL SPEAKING

Did you notice the change of words in your youngsters vocabulary lately. In the English language words and their meanings are modified and altered on a continuous basis. To keep up to date with your talk we can give you some of the latest expressions we picked up from our young, not so Swiss speaking members of the club.

The young Dudes Vocabulary

Dude	- cool person
most triumphant	- all went well
most untriumphant	- all did not go well
most bodaitious	- cool
most unbodaitious	- uncool
not	- but I lie
sux	- stink
gross	- yuck
rude	- gross clothes
e.g. what a rude T-Shirt
yesway	- of course
noway	- never
get a life	- get of the grass
a durr	- clapp clapp or very clever not
moron	- idiot
Medieval Dickweed	- old idiot
Doorknob	- idiot
lowest	- stink
saddest	- stink

Yuks, Suds and Spuds

NZPA Wellington
Yuppies and Dinkies have had their day - New Zealanders can now look forward to being Yuks, Spuds, Mad'ms and Goshs, according to the Federation of Voluntary Welfare Organisations.

Federation workers Pip Desmond and Amy Leask took a cynical look at the economic times in the federation's latest newsletter, Dialogue, and came up with a new vocabulary:

Yuks	- young unemployed kids.
Fosiks	- families on single incomes with kids.
Spuds	- solo parents, unemployed and on the DPB.
Suds	- single, unemployed and on the dole.
Mad'ms	- middle aged and down wardly mobile.
Goshs	- gone on the scrap heap.
Outs	- old, unemployed and terminally depressed.

People in these categories did not have a lot in common with Lombards - lots of money but real dopes, or Plots - parliamentarians living off tax-funded super.

"However," the two women wrote, "if it's any consolation, everyone will eventually end up in the same category: Dead-disestablished and deceased."

Hope we have given you a gay moment with the 1992 way of talking proper and understandable English which will undoubtedly be old-fashioned again tomorrow!!

Thanks to the young girls who don't want their names published for their cool contribution and the unknown member who forgot the "Yuks" paper clipping up at the Swiss Farm!

At last I stood beside the mailbox
My face it sure got red
Instead of mailing this to you
I opened it instead.

HUMOR, KOPIERT AUS DEM DEUTSCHEN NEWS LETTER

Tatsache: Auf den wärmsten Plätzen sitzen oft die Unverfrorensten!

Mit eigenem Verstand kann man sich aus den Steinen, die einem in den Weg gelegt werden, eine Treppe bauen.

Werkämpft, kann verlieren. Wer nicht kämpft hat schon verloren.

Man braucht seinen Verstand nie so sehr, als wenn man es mit einem Dummkopf zu tun hat.

BYE, BYE

I hope you enjoyed reading the useful and not so useful but may be humorous bits of this last News Letter in 1992. With these last lines I would like to send many thanks to all the members who have directly and indirectly contributed information to create these monthly News Letters.

A merry X-Mas and a happy New Year to all of you, Rita & your 'NL' Editor.

A SIGN OF AGE...

Ever wondered if you were coming or going?

Just a line to say I'm living
That I'm not among the dead
Though I'm getting more forgetful
And mixed up in the head.

I've got used to my arthritis
To my dentures I'm resigned
I can manage my bi-focals
But oh God I miss my mind!

Sometimes I can't remember
When I'm standing by the stairs
If I should be going up for something
Or if I've just come down from there.

And before the fridge so often
My mind is filled with doubt
Now did I put some food away
Or come to take it out.

Sometimes when it's night-time
With my nightcap on my head
I don't know if I'm retiring
or just getting out of bed.

If it's not my turn to write dear
I hope you won't get sore
I think I may have written
And don't want to be a bore.

So remember I do love you
And wished that you lived near
But it's time to mail this
And say goodbye, my dear.

NEWS AND FORTHCOMING EVENTS

WORKING BEES: Once again it was time to brighten up our Clubroom on 31 October. Monika, Ursula and Christine (our newest member) attended to the kitchen. Margot, Therese and Ruth cleaned windows, walls and floors, while Rosina freshened curtains and covers from the seats.

At the same time the lending Library was organised in the capable hands of Lotti with the help of Hans. (These are books in German language, left to the Club by Roland Stutz, a past vice-president of the Club).

Wherever strong and tall hands were needed, Walter and Murray stood by or worked out improvements or new ideas. In bright sunshine, we enjoyed in the garden a well deserved lunch donated by Appenzell Delicatessen.

Fleming Soerensen offered his professional skills, painting the highest part of the ceiling. "LEVENE" supplied the paint free of charge. Many thanks for the kind gesture.

Members, please support "LEVENE"

Mid afternoon - getting a bit tired and fed up with scrubbing and cleaning, a surprise arrived for afternoon tea. A "Schwarzwälder Torte" and vanilla slices, donated by the "Aro Street Patisserie" was most welcome. This gave us strength to do the last bit and you should see the bright, shiny hall now! We do hope you will all come to the Christmas Party to approve of our efforts. RM

ART EXHIBITIONS

This programme is developing by the month as cultural identities make their commitments.

We, as indigenous people of Switzerland, are invited to participate as a group. After the well received response to our bicultural day we held at our Club House, it would be an ideal opportunity to continue the process of a better understanding of one another. Our present(s) to the other cultural groups could include items such as:

-sing a few of our songs (Jodelchörli?).

-shoot some burning disks from the top of Mt Hikurangi.

-exhibit some of our crafts (wood works, costumes, art, etc) which might also include the sale of some products.

If you have any questions, further ideas and/or want to participate one day or more, in one form or another, please contact Roland on 568-6772.

UNUSUAL REQUEST

From Hobart in Tasmania (Australia) we have received this most unusual inquiry. As far as the Editor could understand the request is as follows: Mr. Rudy and Mrs. Helen JENNI apparently travelled in 1960 on a ship called the Wilhelm Ruys from Europe to Australia which arrived in Melbourne on September 8, 1960. On this ship they met some Swiss people who continued their journey to New Zealand. Mr. and Mrs. JENNI cannot remember the names of these people but would like, after all these years, to get in touch with them again. So if you happen to be these Swiss people who travelled on that ship, you may wish to contact...

R & H JENNI, Hobart Ph. 02 493-748

GRILLED BISON

On the road from the Vallée de Joux to Vallorbe you will pass by the bison of the Mont d'Orzeires. Eighteen bison give the place a wild-west atmosphere. But the bison are not there only for the sight. Since 1987 over 15 of them found their way into the casseroles of the local restaurant. According to the restaurant's chef, bison, who only eat the finest grass, produce meat with a very distinctive flavour. Their meat contains 10 times less fat than beef and the cholesterol level is lower than in fish. Anyone for bison?

NEW TUNNEL IN AARAU

After one year of work, a new 552m long railway tunnel has been drilled underneath the city of Aarau, 133 years after the first tunnel was put into operation. When completed, the new tunnel will allow the passage of double-decker trains which the old tunnel could not handle.
