HELVEZIA

BERNARD RUSSI, NOW MOUNTAINEER

Bernard Russi from Andermatt (UR), the former Olympic Ski Champion and winner of many down hill ski races throughout the world, is now 48. Although most of his life is still somehow connected with the sport of skiing, Bernard Russi devotes more and more of his free time to his long time hobby of alpinism.

That he is as good at that sport as he was at skiing is clearly shown in this picture which shows him "abseiling" from the granit summit of the Gross-Schijen, high above his beloved Andermatt.

Pirmin with his wife Moni and children Maria (2), Elia (6) and Pirmin (4). In the background, the famous Matterhorn in all its splendour.
