World Championship Shooting Results, 1996

"Karabiner" shooting is, has been, and hopefully will continue to be an integral part of the Swiss tradition. Compatriots living abroad (where Governments allow rifles to be imported) can take part in the "Compulsory" or "Field Shoot", as well as the Club (Section) and individual worldwide championship. Looking through last year's results, compiled by the Schützengesellschaft Wilhelm Tell, St. Gallen, the tradition is being maintained in Canada, USA, Hong Kong, South Africa and New Zealand (overseas); and France, Germany, Italy, Austria, Holland, Belgium, Liechtenstein and England (Europe). It's a pleasure to note that a few ladies are also participating and doing very well for themselves. Outstanding results, both in Section and individual competitions were posted from Los Angeles, Vancouver, Edmonton, Ottawa, Paris, Gex, Calgary, Montreal, Kaponga and Auckland. It's my pleasure to congratulate Kaponga for winning the Section competition for 1996, and their one and only Edi Füglistaller for winning the special prize for the individual "World Championship".

Here are a few results:
