Obituaries

Freda Hospenthal
1923 - 2002

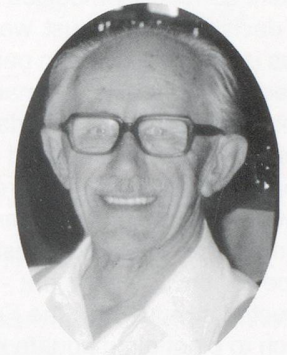

Freda was born at Kapuni into a family of five. In 1942 she married Zeno and in 1943 they bought the farm at Rowan Road where she spent all her life. They brought up a family of five; two boys and three girls. She lost her husband ten years ago, but she remained on the farm with her youngest son, Zeno.

A very loyal member of our club, a good card player, a very strong believer and a very good mother.

To all the family, our deepest sympathy. May she rest in peace.

Felix Suter
1924-2002

Felix was born in Muotathal as the youngest of 11 brothers and sisters. He took up an apprenticeship as a cabinet maker.

In 1958 he emigrated to New Zealand where he took on a job as joiner in a factory in Marton. He married Joy and they adopted two children, a girl and a boy. About fourteen years ago Felix lost his wife, and he decided to get closer to his relatives in Taranaki.

In his free time he loved Jassen, playing the "Maulorgeli" or the flute, or listening to Landler Music.

To all the families our deepest sympathy. May he rest in peace.

Things that make you go UUUUMMMM!

If you take an Oriental person and spin him around several times, does he become disoriented?

Do infants enjoy infancy as much as adults enjoy adultery?

If horrific means horrible, does terrific mean terrible?

Do Roman Doctors refer to IVs as 4s?

If lawyers are disbarred and clergymen defrocked, doesn't it follow that electricians can be delighted, musicians denoted, cowboys deranged, models deposed, tree surgeons debarked and dry cleaners depressed?

When cheese gets its picture taken, what does it say?

If a pig loses its voice, is it disgruntled? Why do croutons come in airtight packages? It's just stale bread to begin with.

Why do overlook and oversee mean opposite things?

Why is a person who plays the piano called a pianist, but a person who drives a race car not called a racist?

Why is the man who invests all your money called a broker?
