Preparation and Submission of Manuscripts

- The Journal neither favors nor excludes any research orientation. Manuscripts may be submitted in German, French or English. Articles are considered on their merits and in relation to the overall suitability of the journal. All manuscripts are subject to review by the editorial committee and by independent experts, whose names are not disclosed.
- Contributions should be accompanied by a statement that they have not already been published, and that they will not be submitted for publication elsewhere without the agreement of the Editor-in-Chief.
- Manuscripts submitted for publication should include a cover page (full name of all authors, institutional affiliations, as well as the full mailing address and e-mail address of the corresponding author). The authors should not be identifiable in the body of the manuscript.
- It is understood that manuscripts accepted for publication are subject to editorial revision.
- Articles should not exceed 50'000 characters or 8'000 words. They should be accompanied by an abstract of approximately 650 characters or 100 words, and by five keywords.
- Further guidelines about the preparation of manuscripts (layout for titles, notes, tables and figures, quotation marks, reproduction of copyright material, etc.) have to be consulted on our website (www.sociojournal.ch). The guidelines are related to the manuscript's language (German, French or English).

Manuscripts should be addressed by e-mail to Pascale Gazareth, Submission Manager, socio.journal@unine.ch.

Book reviews should be addressed to Philippe.Gonzales@unil.ch (French) or dietmar.wetzel@soz.unibe.ch (German); see website for further indications.

Responsibility and Copyright

The responsibility for opinions expressed in signed articles rests solely with the authors. The Swiss Journal of Sociology and the Swiss Sociological Association owns the copyright for the published articles. The publication rights in print, electronic and any other form and in any other language is reserved by the Swiss Journal of Sociology and the Swiss Sociological Association.

The Swiss Journal of Sociology was established in 1975 on the initiative of the Swiss Sociological Association. It is published three times a year with the support of the Swiss Academy of Humanities and Social Sciences.

The journal is a multilingual voice for analysis and research in sociology. It publishes work on the theory, methods, practice, and history of the social sciences in English, French, or German.

Although a central aim of the journal is to reflect the state of the discipline in Switzerland as well as current developments, articles and book reviews will be accepted irrespective of the author's nationality or whether the submitted work focuses on this country.

The journal is understood as a representative medium and therefore open to all research areas, to a plurality of schools and methodological approaches. It neither favours nor excludes any research orientation but particularly intends to promote communication between different perspectives. In order to fulfil this aim, all submissions will be refereed anonymously by at least two reviewers.
