Foyer Suisse deserve special mention. They had some splendid meetings and over 300 of them came together on the two evenings.

Both the Réunion de Couture and the Naehverein belonging to the two sections of the Swiss Church also meet regularly once every month and a great deal of good practical work is being done for charitable purposes. Needless to say all is for the benefit of the poor in the Swiss Colony, and the highest appreciation is hereby expressed to these ladies.

The two tenants of the Foyer Suisse, the "Unionne Chrétienne de Langue Française" and the "Swiss Y.M.C.A.," continue to do good work among young men, under very difficult conditions, however.

For the second time in succession we held the Old Folks Xmas Luncheon in the middle of December last. Some ninety old people of Swiss nationality and over 65 years of age had been invited to attend, but only about 40 took part. Our Swiss Minister, Monsieur C. R. Paravicini, again presided and it was a most happy and enjoyable afternoon.

The best working relations continue between the Foyer Suisse and the Swiss Mercantile Society, the International Christian Student Movement, the International Y.M.C.A. in 24 Upper Bedford Place, W.C.1, and our late member, Monsieur and Mme. Ochsenbein, 1-3 Upper Bedford Place, W.C.1.

Our Manager, Mr. W. Meyer, our Chef, Mr. F. Koelliker, as well as Mrs. Koelliker and staff deserve the fullest appreciation and thanks of the Trust for their untiring energy and devotion to duty. Special mention is also made of the help of Mr. F. Ineichen in the accountancy dept.

C. BERTSCHINGER, Hon. Secretary.

PERSONAL.

Sincere sympathy will be extended by everyone in the Colony to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pfirter of 12, Kinnaird Avenue, Bromley (Kent), who received news early this week of the death of their 18-year-old daughter Gladys. Miss Pfirter had finished her schooling at Lausanne and was expected home in London early this week; when bathing on Tuesday morning in the lake of Geneva she was suddenly taken ill and died the same day.

CITY SWISS CLUB.

MONSIEUR, Londres, le 10 juin 1930.

Nous avons le profond regret de vous faire part de la perte de notre dévoué membre honoraire, MONSIEUR PAUL CHATELANAT, décédé subitement le jeudi 29 mai dans sa 74me année.

Monsieur Paul Chatelanat était entré au City Swiss Club comme membre actif en 1910. Elu Président au mois d'avril 1913, il avait continué à diriger les destinées de notre Société durant les années difficiles de 1914 et 1915, soit jusqu'à son retour dans sa chère ville natale de Nyon en décembre 1915. En témoignage de reconnaissance de ses grandes qualités et des services rendus au City Swiss Club, il avait été élu membre honoraire le 7 décembre de cette même année.

L'ensevelissement a eu lieu le 31 mai à Nyon. Veuillez agréer, Monsieur, nos salutations empressées.
