SWISS MERCANTILE SOCIETY.

Members and friends of the Society will no doubt be pleased to learn that the Swiss Minister, Monsieur W. Thurnheer, has kindly consented to honour the Society with his presence on the occasion of the Monthly Meeting on Wednesday, May 15th. This will be an excellent opportunity for the members of the Society to make the acquaintance of our Minister. In addition to the Minister a number of distinguished guests will be present and the Committee will spare no efforts to make the meeting as interesting and entertaining as possible. In order fully to acquaint M. Thurnheer with the activities of the Society there will be brief surveys of the work of the various departments, as well as an outline of the Society's aims in the future. The Meeting will be followed by a musical programme in which several members will take part. The Meeting has been fixed for 8.15 p.m. and the Committee extends a hearty invitation to all members and friends of the Society to be present on May 15th in order to bid welcome to our Minister at Swiss House.

CHURCH BAZAAR.

All the Details.

As most of you know there will be a Bazaar of the two Swiss Protestant Churches on Saturday, May 25th. It will be held at the FOYER SUISSE, 15, Bedford Way, Russell Square, W.C.1. Madame Walter Thurnheer, the wife of the Swiss Minister, has kindly consented to open the Bazaar at 2 o'clock. We have already pointed out that there will be a number of stalls where many useful as well as attractive things can be had for little money. You will be able to find pretty fancy goods, home-made cakes, toys for the children, some useful articles for the men as well as babies' things and stamps. Tea will be served from three o'clock onward at 1/-, and there will be a buffet.

Should anyone like to send some small articles suitable for sale at the Bazaar or some cakes and pastries for the Tea they are asked to kindly send them to either Monsieur le Pasteur Pradervand or Herr Pfarrer Stutz, c/o Foyer Suisse, as soon as convenient. Perishable goods should be sent on the morning of the Bazaar. The Organising Committee send their sincere thanks to all those who are going to help them to make the Bazaar a success.

We are sure that everyone who will be at the Foyer Suisse to-morrow fortnight will spend a very pleasant afternoon and take home some happy memories as well as perhaps a handsome parcel.

Mariann.

BUSINESS AS USUAL.

We hear that our old friends the West End Fancy Bakery Co., Ltd., have opened a new branch at 8, Castle Street, Kingston-on-Thames; apart from the shop there is a tea room and a large restaurant which will no doubt find plenty of patronage in this new shopping centre in the heart of Kingston.
