The President, Mr. C. Ferrari, called the meeting to order and the minutes of the last General Meeting held in January, 1943, were read by the Vice-Secretary, Mr. E. Genini, and passed unanimously.

The report on the Festa Familiare held at the Dorchester Hotel, on 31st October, 1943, was then given and a vote of thanks accorded to the Entertainment Committee for the success achieved.

The President asked for any further suggestions and Mr. C. Berti, seconded by Mr. O. Gambazzi, proposed that the matter of admitting the ladies to participation in the Mutual Aid Fund open to all male members should be studied. After a lively discussion, a resolution, with one against, was passed that an opportunity should be given to all members to ventilate their ideas at the next General Meeting, consequent on which a decision should be taken to empower the Committee, or otherwise, to investigate this matter and present its proposals.

SWISS MERCANTILE SOCIETY.

The Monthly Meeting was held at Swiss House on Saturday, January 8th.

This being the first meeting in 1944, the Chairman, Mr. J. J. Boos, took the opportunity of wishing all present a happy New Year, and also conveyed to them seasonal greetings from Headquarters in Zurich through National Councillor Ph. Schmid-Ruedin and Mr. W. Baumgartner, Chief of the Employment Department.

Three new members were elected, viz. Mr. M. Hauwyler, Miss S. R. Hengstler and Mr. G. E. Suter, which augurs well for the year.

The President mentioned that the Swiss Minister had kindly sent two beautiful calendars from Switzerland, published by the Secrétariat des Suisses à l'Etranger. These calendars used to be very popular in London before the war, when they were sold in large numbers. As probably very few members are in the happy position of having one in their own home to-day, one of the calendars received will be used to adorn the members' room.

The President also gave interesting news regarding activities in the Colony and referred to the efforts which are being made here to co-ordinate arrangements for education and employment in the post war period with preparations made in this direction in Switzerland.

After some discussion, the meeting decided to arrange a luncheon to precede the Annual General Meeting to be held at Brown's Hotel, Dover Street, W.1, on Saturday, February 12th. Luncheon will be served at 1 p.m. sharp and the meeting will commence at 2.30 p.m.

Members will no doubt be anxious to hear the reports on the year's activities, accounts, etc., as well as plans for the future.

The Council and the Committee hope that members will be present in large numbers to give them their support. Please, therefore, reserve February 12th for the S.M.S.

The usual Monthly Meeting took place on January 11th, at Brown's Hotel, W.1. M. Anton Bon was in the Chair, and there were seventy members present.

1 Admission, 1 Resignation.

The Meeting was preceded by an excellent dinner, consisting of Velouté Monte Carlo, Choucroute Garnie St. Galloise, Jambon Fumé, Pommes Vapeur, Carottes à Veturée and Profiterole Suchard, and our members, Messrs. After the Meeting, Sir Angus Gillan, a member of the British Council and a valued friend of the City Swiss Club, addressed the gathering on "The Growth and Development of the British Colonial Empire." Sir Angus treated this vast subject in a masterly manner, giving a concise resumé of the development of British Colonial expansion during the last three centuries.

M. Bon, on behalf of the City Swiss Club, thanked Sir Angus for his very interesting address, expressing the hope that he would again give a talk to the members in the near future.

SWISS CATHOLICS IN LONDON.

The Christmas and New Year's Service on January 2nd at St. Peters Church, Westminster, was well attended. Father Lanfranchi preached and assisted by Father Würms gave solemn benediction, the mixed choir rendering carols before and after the service.

The Childrens and Christmas party at the Cathedral Hall which followed was a huge success, nearly 600 compatriots being present. Thanks to the generous donors all children up to 16, about 80 in all, received toys or useful presents, whilst the grown ups had tea provided, supplemented by cakes and pastries graciously supplied by Messrs. Bachmann (Kencakes), Webber and Aubonney.

On the nomination of the Most Rev. Bernard Griffin as Archbishop of Westminster, the Committee sent on behalf of the Swiss Catholics congratulations and assurance of our prayers for his success, and His Grace replied giving thanks and his blessings to all.
