AN ANNIVERSARY.

To Mr. and Mrs. Gottfried Hafner of "Helvetia," 304, Westbourne Grove, Westcliff-on-Sea, who on the 17th of March celebrated their Golden Wedding Jubilee, we extend our heartiest congratulations, coupled with the sincere wish that this happy partnership may be continued for many more years to come.

On March 17th, 1894, he married Miss Louisa Austin, who through all the years of their union has been a helpful and devoted companion to him.

On this auspicious occasion it is opportune to recall the valuable services Mr. G. Hafner has rendered in the course of many years to the Swiss Church, to the Foyer Suisse in particular, and to the Swiss Colony in general.

Mr. Hafner, who is in his 75th year, arrived in this country on September 30th, 1888 and entered the London Office of Messrs. Schwarzenbach & Co., of Thalwil, of which firm he became Counting House Manager in 1916. After fifty years faithful service to his firm he retired on 31st December, 1933, to take a well-deserved rest.

In spite of his long absence from our country he has always shown a great interest in all Swiss affairs, and his attachment to his native land has remained deep and sincere.

We feel sure that the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. G. Hafner desire to join us in expressing the hope that they will continue to enjoy good health and great happiness.

LETTER-BOX.

C. J. B. — The story which you kindly sent us has appeared in most of the English dailies; it belongs to the "hypothetical and conjectural" category and we hope that our reprinting it will not have repercussions in the Swiss Air Force: "Berlin Radio last night stated that American bombers flew over Switzerland and said that this conversation took place by radio between the Swiss A.A. gunners and the U.S. airmen: Swiss A.A.: "Look out, you are over Switzerland." U.S. Commander: "We know." Swiss: "If you don't turn back we shall shoot." U.S.: "We know." The Swiss A.A. guns began to fire. Then the U.S. Commander radioed: "Your fire is about 1000 feet too low." Swiss: "We know!"

Here is another one reproduced by the "Daily Telegraph" from the "Nebelspalter": "Wallenstein, Prince Eugen, Nelson, Napoleon, Foch and Hindenburg met in the Elysian Fields. They became engaged in a heated debate about the war and its chances.

'Gentlemen,' Napoleon suddenly exclaimed, 'If I had had a Propaganda Minister I shouldn't know even to-day that I lost the Battle of Waterloo.'"

St. E. B. — Sorry that you should have been troubled with our green form; it is our mistake as your remittance was credited to a namesake and will carry you to our issue No.1034. Many thanks for your good wishes.

Miss H. F. R. — Leicestershire. It is difficult to discover the reason of your trouble, without knowing all the details. Have you seen that the aerial and earth are in good condition. It is also likely that being now on a hill that your chart is no longer correct and you may have to try it out. Have you tried to point your aerial in the direction of Beromunster. This might give you the desired result.
