ASSOCIATION OF BRITISH MEMBERS OF THE SWISS ALPINE CLUB.

5th June, 1944.

The Editor,
"Swiss Observer,"
23, Leonard Street, E.C.2.

Dear Sir,

Would you care to insert a paragraph in your next issue to the effect that the Trustees of the SIR WILLIAM ELLIS TRUST FOR GUIDES OF SWISS NATIONALITY, distributed last year the sum of £170 among distressed guides and their families living in Engadine, Engelberg, Bernese Oberland and Valais.

The Trustees have obtained permission again this year to make a similar distribution.

Times are not easy in Switzerland, and even though the sum given to each one of the Beneficiaries may not seem large, it is probably of very considerable assistance to people whose mode of living is based on a very small cash standard.

Yours truly,
SIR WM. ELLIS TRUST FOR GUIDES,
CHAS. LEHMANN,
Trustee.

SWISS BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.

The Swiss Benevolent Society regret the delay in sending out their Annual Report, due to the difficulty in having it printed. It is, however, hoped the report will be available sometime next month.
