"HOCH VOM SAENTIS AN"

From the Säntis heights where the eagle soars
To the Rhone-land where the river roars,
Where the dairy-maid trills her happy song
And the huntsman boldly strides along,

There's a beauteous land
'Tis my native land
'Tis my dear beloved Switzerland.

Where the Alp-horn breaks in the Shepherd's sleep
While the mists yet through the valleys creep, where contented Kine 'cross the shadows stray
And the mountains glow in the morning ray,

There's a beauteous land . . . etc. . . .

Where from crag to crag chamois lightly spring,
Where the echoes of a gunshot ring,
And where every clod loudly seems to call
'Tis this soil that you love best of all!

There's a beauteous land . . . etc. . . .
