Monsieur Robert Kohli, Swiss Minister at The Hague, has been appointed Minister in Budapest, in succession to Dr. Eduard Zellweger, who recently resigned from his post.

Minister Kohli, was born in Rüscheegg (Ct. Berne) in 1896. He studied law at the University of Berne. In 1918, he entered into the service of the Confederation, and six years later (1924) was in charge of the section for foreign interests of the Political Department (Foreign Office). In 1938, he was promoted to Secretary of Legation, and placed in charge of the Federal Immigration Office, which post he occupied until 1941, in which year he was promoted to Counsellor of Legation. In 1945, he was appointed Minister to Holland.

The Federal Council has appointed Monsieur Max Grässli, Counsellor of Legation, to the post of Swiss Minister in Budapest.

The new Minister was born in St. Gall in 1902, and studied law at the Universities of Geneva, Paris and Berne, after which he practised as an advocate in Berne, Aarau and Geneva. In 1930, he entered the Diplomatic Service, and was attached to the Swiss Legation in Paris. Three years later (1934) he was transferred to Berne, and promoted to Secretary of Legation. In 1936, he was sent to Berlin, which post he left in 1942 on his appointment as Consul General in Bratislava. Three years later (1945) he was promoted to Counsellor of Legation and transferred to Washington, which post he occupied until 1948, when he was sent on a diplomatic mission to Japan. After a few months, Minister Grässli returned to Berne. From May 25th to September 22nd of this year, he was Chargé d'Affaires in Moscow.
