Namen und Marken an ausländische Erzeugnisse gewöhnen?

Ich schliesse, lieber Leser, mit der Entschuldigung, dich in deiner und meiner Muttersprache — der "heiligen Sprache" — ängeredet zu haben.

A TOAST.

Here's to the health of one who wields the pen
With skill and ease, as to the manner born,
Whose writings and the pages they adorn
Abound with common-sense and acumen.

Most unassuming and reserved of men,
His independence nothing can suborn,
He shares our joys and comforts those who mourn;
Of Editors a model specimen!

His native humour, his sincerity,
Impart the human touch, the moral tone;
He writes with feeling, with simplicity,
And with a subtle charm all of his own.
Wherefore we wish him well, and this we ask:
May long he prosper in his chosen task.

By a reader of the Swiss Observer.

Four tablespoons makes a gallon of first rate soup!

Good beef stock makes a grand basis for soup; but when you haven't got it—and, in these days, that's all too often—you'll find Maggi's Beef Bouillon a great help. It is a scientifically prepared Meat Extract, packed in tins of 5 lbs. gross (enough to make approx. 35 gallons of soup at four level tablespoons per gallon) and can be used with great satisfaction to yourself and your patrons as a base to your own soup recipes both thick and clear.

MAGGI'S FREE TESTING SAMPLE Recipes and a generous sample of Maggi's Beef Bouillon will be sent on request
