SWISS CLUB — DUNFERMLINE.

On Friday, 25th March, our compatriots and their friends gathered in the nicely decorated Canteen of Messrs. Winterthur Silks Ltd., for their yearly social.

Our President extended a hearty welcome to everyone present. He and his committee were pleased to have the wholehearted support of the members who have helped so much to make this gathering a success. There were many beautiful prizes on the table next to the speaker, for the Putting and Darts Competitions and the "Tombola." All of them were donated by our Members and the Swiss Club, Balloch. Our compatriots have never failed to leave an appeal by the Committee unanswered.

Mr. Frick then outlined shortly, the Programme for the evening and wished everyone a very enjoyable time.

The first item in the Programme was the showing of two Swiss Films. Through the courtesy of the Swiss National Tourist Office of the Swiss Federal Railways, we were able to show the two short talkies:—

- (1) "Spring Snow."
- (2) "Typical Pictures of Swiss Life."

Both these films are most interesting. While the first one presented to us, the snow covered mountains and happy faces of the "Skiers," we watched the lovely lakes and hills and the every-day life of the peoples in the second picture. We wish to express our sincere thanks to Mr. John Farrell, who so kindly offered his services by operating Mr. Bosshardt's projector.

In the meantime, our "Chef" had prepared supper for us (which included even "Sauerkraut"). Mr. Schoenenberger has never failed to surprise us with a delicious meal. Once more we wish to express our appreciation to him and to all those who helped to prepare the lovely dinner.

All participants were very eager to try their luck in the various competitions arranged and also in the "Tombola." The following were the prize-winners:—

Putting Competition:— First Lady: Mrs. Gertrude Meier; Runner-up: Mrs. Isobel Vogel; First Gentleman: Mr. Albert Bolliger; Runner-up: Mr. Curt Schoenenberger.

Darts Competition:— First Lady: Mrs. Isobel Vogel; Runner-up: Mrs. Schoenenberger; First Gentleman: Mr. Robert Weiss; Runner-up: Mr. Heusser.

The remaining prizes set aside for the "Tombola" were shared by almost everyone in the hall. We wish to thank Mrs. Frick for presenting the winners with their lovely prizes.

At midnight, another very enjoyable gathering came to an end. In his summing up, Mr. Frick thanked all present for the assistance they have given to make this social evening a success.

NEW AIR SERVICE TO THE HOLIDAY CENTRES OF SWITZERLAND.

Swissair, the Swiss Air Transport Company, will inaugurate the first direct air connection between Scotland and Switzerland on May 14th.

Leaving Glasgow Renfrew Airport at 9.30 a.m. the Swissair plane will arrive at Zurich-Kloten at 3.30 p.m. so that passengers will be able to reach on the same day the great tourist centres of Switzerland: St. Moritz, Interlaken, Lucerne, Lugano, etc.

Departures from Glasgow will take place on Saturdays and Sundays and from Zurich on Fridays and Saturdays.
