ACADEMY CINEMA

presents

KIND HEARTS AND CORONETS (a)
and
ADIEU LEONARD (a)

Commencing Saturday, June 10th, the Academy Cinema will present a revival of the Ealing Studio comedy, KIND HEARTS AND CORONETS with Alec Guinness, and a French "escapist" comedy ADIEU LEONARD, written by Jacques Prevert and directed by his brother, Pierre.

Now running in Paris with tremendous success, KIND HEARTS and CORONETS was missed by many here owing to its premier run and general release in London both occurring last Summer. Its revival will give an opportunity to repair this omission.

A comedy on the vanity of riches and the happy estate of the little man who excites no envy, has no responsibilities to keep up and can gain his livelihood with his own two hands, ADIEU LEONARD was a considerable success in Paris. It has many typical Prevert twists of humour and was made at little cost by the two brothers — a contrast to the grandiose Prevert-Carné partnership. The principal parts are played by Pierre Brasseur, Carette and Charles Trenet.
