one is, rightly so, ignored, but I will let you into a secret, he is the writer of this report, who, slow like a Bernese, has only just learned that, when shooting, one has only to close one eye, whereas in his innocence he had closed both, trusting to luck, hence the "booby prize." He has now decided to give up this "one eyed" job and stick to writing.

This very enjoyable evening, where good comradeship reigned supreme, came to a close soon after 11 o'clock and everyone left the Glendower Hotel with the happy feeling of having spent an enjoyable time amidst genial company.

ST.

PFARRER BLUM'S
"ABSCHIEDS GOTTESDIENST".

A large congregation assembled on Sunday, December 9th, at the Lecture Hall, Kingsway Hall, Kingsway, W.C.2, to take leave and to show their appreciation to him and his wife for the great services they have rendered to the Swiss Church in particular and the Colony in general during their six year's stay in the Metropolis. The Swiss Minister, was represented by Dr. and Mrs. E. Bernath, Counsellor of Legation.

We are wishing Herr Pfarrer Blum and his wife God's blessing in their new sphere of activity at Wiesendangen.
