PERSONAL.

We extend most heartiest congratulations to Mr. W. Preiswerk, of 21, Nonnenweg, Basle, who has been informed by Sir Patrick Scrivener, Her Britannic Majesty's Minister in Berne, that His late Majesty King George VI had graciously bestowed on him "the dignity of an Honorary Commander of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire in recognition of his services to British Interests during the war".

The insignia was presented to Mr. Preiswerk by Her Majesty's Consul at Basle on the 27th of February, the day of the first Investiture of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth.

Mr. Preiswerk was during the last war that at the head of the Special Division of the Swiss Legation, and whilst in London, he, and Madame Preiswerk, took a great interest in the life of the Colony; we feel sure, that his many friends in this country will be delighted with the news of this much deserved distinction.

We regret to announce the passing away, last January, at Burgdorf, of Mr. Paul Luder, at the age of 66.

Mr. Luder was at one time conductor of the Swiss Institute Orchestra in London. He left this country for Switzerland in 1919.

OBITUARY.

On Friday, 29th February the funeral took place of ALFONSO CARLO MALINGAMBA who passed away, after a long illness at St. Andrew's Hospital, aged 56 years. To his widow, Mme. Louise and to his mother, Sig.na Candida we extend our sympathy. The deceased had been a lifelong member of the "Unione Ticinese".

On the very same day this Society sustained the loss of another faithful member, Mr. VINCENZO RATTI who died at the National Temperance Hospital, aged 72, following a heart attack. He too had been connected with the "Unione Ticinese" all his life since his arrival in London from Malvaglia, canton Ticino, some 50 years ago. Lately he had served on the Committee being a most efficient Collector of subscriptions. Our heartfelt condolences go to his widow, Mrs. Kathleen, to his sister-in-law, Sig.ra Letizia Ratti, and to his relatives at home.
