ETIENNE R. COTTET

We have much pleasure to announce that Mr. Etienne R. Cottet, has been appointed Chief Hotels Manager, Northern Group, British Transport Hotels and Catering Services, with headquarters at York.

Mr. Cottet was born at Bossonens (Ct. Fribourg) in 1894, and started his schooling in his native village and at the Ecole Régionale d'Attalens. On the conclusion of his studies he made his apprenticeship at the Hotel Eden at Montreux.

In 1911, at the age of nearly 18, he decided to go abroad, and his choice was Germany, where he obtained a position at the "Kaiserhof" Berlin, and afterwards had several appointments at Breslau, Bad Salzbrunn, etc., etc.

It was in 1913, that Mr. Cottet arrived in this country, where he obtained a position at the Hotel Adelphi in Liverpool, belonging to the London Midland Scottish Railway; after having spent several years at various Railway Hotels, he was appointed Manager of the Euston Hotel in London, during the coronation of the late King George VI, in 1937.

For several of the tragic war years, he was in charge of the Hotel Adelphi at Liverpool, which Hotel was, on many occasions, bombed and badly damaged. In 1943, he took over the management of the Midland Hotel in Manchester, and at the same time also managed the famous Gleneagles Hotel in Scotland, which under his direction was again transformed into a Hotel after having been used as a hospital.

In April, 1949, he was nominated Manager Superintendent of the British Railways Hotels in the North-West region of England, which brought twelve of the largest Hotels under his supervision.

Two years later, October 1951, Mr. Cottet was appointed Chief Hotels Manager (Headquarters).

Mr. Cottet was until recently President of the Swiss Club, Manchester, and we are tendering him our best wishes in his new sphere of activity.
