IN MEMORIAM.
(Paul Moehr † August 7th, 1955.)

Farewell, dear friend, on your untimely quest
For that which yonder lies this earthbound sphere,
Where day and night dissolve; year after year
Merge into one — off'ring eternal rest.

Your pilgrimage, though short, was richly bless'd
And great success attended your career;
To you the busy City-life was dear,
Still, 'twas your happy home that you loved best.

You will be sadly missed by countless friends
For what you were and gave which transcends
All lesser things in our daily round.

Your mem'ry will live on in cherished ground,
The seed you planted flourish into bloom,
Symbolic of that life beyond the tomb.

LONDON, August, 1955.
