Swissair, a Cinex camera, a dinner and cabaret entertainment at The Dorchester, Swiss watches, bottles of perfume, a "bon" for a pair of ladies shoes, etc. All prizes were generously given by various members of the Club. After the lucky winners had gathered their prizes, and the unlucky ones recovered from the shock, the excellent dance band of Les Brown started the second part of the evening with an enticing waltz tune luring everyone on to the dance floor.

What a lovely sight it was to see young and old, titled and untitled turn around with great exuberance. Tangos, waltzes, fox trots, etc., followed each other in quick succession. The sparkling eyes of the ladies competed successfully with the bright sparkle of the large chandeliers which shed their light over the happy revellers.

Midnight came and passed, and still the dancers carried on, allowing themselves no respite, but all good things must come to an end, and shortly after 1 a.m. the orchestra played "God save the Queen", and a brilliant and enjoyable evening came to its end, or nearly so, because after a circle was formed, and the President and his charming lady ushered into it, the entire company sang "Auld Lang Syne", concluding with three cheers.

The 90th Banquet and Ball of the City Swiss Club, and the 99th year of existence of the Club came to a finish, and I feel sure that all those who were present at this auspicious occasion will agree, that it was a fine and unforgettable evening, and we all are now looking forward to next year, when the birthday cake, adorned with 100 candles, will be cut.

MAKERS OF THE FAMOUS TOBLERONE

TOBLER CHOCOLATE.

Tobler are introducing to this country "Mocca", a new coffee flavoured milk chocolate and, for the first time since the war, are making "Tobler O'Rum" and "Chocolat au Lait".

"Mocca" was previously only available on the Continent and British tourists had written to Tobler asking that it should be placed on sale in this country. "Mocca" chocolate has a unique and intriguing coffee flavour and is made from a new Swiss recipe. It is sold in a Continental style tablet, costing 1/4d. per quarter lb.

"Tobler O'Rum" is a creamy, milky chocolate filled with crisp hazel nuts and raisins which have been soaked for six days in finest old Jamaica rum. It has a delightful aroma of chocolate and rum and the flavour is heavenly. The price is 1/9d. per quarter lb. tablet.

"Chocolat au Lait" is another Swiss chocolate re-introduced by Tobler. It is a creamy rich chocolate, sweet but not cloying. The price in this country is 1/4d. per quarter lb.

Tobler chocolates, including Toblerone, are made from the original Swiss recipes.
