The Federal Assembly, that is the two Chambers of Parliament sitting together, elected Dr. Max Petitpierre, Head of the Federal Political Department

(Foreign Office), as President of the Confederation for 1955.

The President was born on the 26th of February, 1899, in Couvet (Ct. Neuchâtel). He studied law at the Universities of Neuchâtel, Zurich and Munich. His thesis for the doctorate in law dealt with the recognition and execution of foreign judgements.

After the conclusion of his studies, he established himself as an advocate and notary in Neuchâtel. From 1926-31, and again from 1938-44, he was Professor of International law at the University of Neuchâtel.

In 1937, he was elected a member of the Grand Council of his native canton, and five years later (1942) he entered Parliament (States Council) as a Liberal.

On the 14th of December, 1944, Monsieur Petitpierre was elected a Member of the Federal Government in succession to Monsieur Pilet-Golaz, since then he has been in charge of the Federal Political Department (Swiss Foreign Office). M. Petitpierre was President of the Confederation in 1950.

Dr. Markus Feldmann, has been elected Vice-President of the Confederation. He was born on the 21st of May, 1897 in Thun (Ct. Berne). He received his schooling in Thun and Berne and afterwards studied law at various Universities. In 1924, he became a member of the editorial staff of the "Neuen Berner Zeitung", and in 1928, he was promoted to Editor-in-Chief of this paper. Seventeen years later (1945) he was elected a member of the Government of the canton of Berne. He sat in Parliament (National-Council) from 1935-1951. On the 13th of December, 1951, he entered the Federal Government in succession to Federal-Councillor von Steiger. From 1933-1935
