Federal

Monsieur Enrico Celio, Swiss Minister in Rome, having reached retiring age, will shortly vacate his post.

The Federal Council has designed as his successor, Dr. Alfred Escher, at present Head of the Swiss Delegation of the Neutral International Commission for the exchange of prisoners of war in Korea.

Minister A. Escher was born in 1906, and hails from Zurich, he studied law at the Universities of Zurich, Kiel and Berlin, and in 1928 obtained his doctorate. He entered into the service of the Federal Political Department (Swiss Foreign Office) in 1931, and was sent to London and afterwards to the Swiss Consulate in Bangkok. In 1935, he was transferred to Warsaw and four years later (1939) to Berlin.

In 1941, M. Escher went to Ankara with the rank of 1st Secretary of Legation, the following year he was appointed Consul in Bagdad and from there he went to Athens, where he was promoted to the rank of Counsellor of Legation.

He was transferred to London in 1945, as 1st Counsellor of Legation, and in 1948, the International Committee of the Red Cross appointed M. Escher as commissioner in connection with the help for refugees in Palastine, he was at the disposal of the Red Cross Committee until the 22nd of June, 1951, when he was appointed Swiss Minister in Iran, being at the same time accredited to Afghanistan. (Minister Escher, whilst in London, was frequently seen in the Colony.)

The Finance Commission of the two Chambers (National and States Council) is studying the question of an increased remuneration for Federal Councillors; the salary of a Federal Councillor was fixed in 1947 to be 48,000.—frs., in addition a yearly amount of 70,000.—frs. was made available for the entertainment expenses of the seven Councillors.

It is proposed to increase the salary of a member of the Government from 48,000.—frs. to 55,000.—frs.

The Soviet Government has asked Switzerland to look after their interests in the Kingdom of Irak, the Federal Council has accepted the mission.

The Federal Department of Justice and Police in Berne, stated that the Munich Police have arrested a German alleged to have driven gunmen from Germany to Switzerland to attack the Rumanian Legation in Berne last month. The arrest was made at the request of the Swiss, they said.

The Swiss Police also mention that the four gunmen, now under arrest, were born in Rumania, but their full identity may not yet have been definitely established. The Police say they confiscated two sub-machine guns, one German revolver, one German automatic pistol, two small pocket pistols, several knives and daggers, and 158 rounds of ammunition.
