LONDON SCAFFOLDERS FLY TO LAGOS.

When Her Majesty the Queen arrives in Lagos on the 28th January, she will drive between crowds of her Nigerian subjects who will be seated on the same kind of Stands as those which lined her Coronation route. A group of twelve Acrow Scaffolders left Heath Row recently for Lagos to supervise the erection of the Stands by African labour. The group, all of whom worked on the Coronation Stands, volunteered to give up part of their Christmas holidays in order to have the Stands ready in time for the Queen's arrival. The contract for the Stands, which will be built of Steel Scaffolding to seat a total of 15,000 people, was won by Acrow (Engineers) Limited in collaboration with their West African distributors, Messrs. John Holt & Co. (Liverpool) Limited.
