SWISSAIR RE-ROUTE SOUTH AMERICA SERVICE.

From 1st January, 1958, Swissair's "Super-suisse" services to South America will call at Lisbon and Recife. At the same time the call at Dakar is being discontinued.

The route is flown twice weekly by DC-7Cs. Both flights will go from Recife to Rio de Janeiro and Sao Paulo, with one service weekly continuing to Montevideo and Buenos Aires.

The new routing also means that Swissair will link Switzerland with Lisbon seven times weekly in each direction including the North and South America and European services.
