SWISS MERCANTILE SOCIETY.

Annual Dinner and Dance, on Saturday, 25th January 1958, at the Dorchester Hotel, Park Lane, W.1.

We wish to direct the attention of our readers to the Annual Dinner and Dance which will take place on January 25th at the Dorchester Hotel (see advertisement).

The Swiss Mercantile Society hardly need any introduction. During the last few years they have gone from success to success, building up an organisation which can claim the respect of everyone, and one hardly exaggerates when one speaks of their work as being of national importance.

More than ever this enterprising Society deserve the support of the members of the London Swiss Colony in all their doings, and a large attendance at their annual festival, we are sure, they would appreciate as showing our gratitude for their work.

The coming Annual Dinner and Dance is a splendid opportunity to re-unite once again old friends and members, and we make a strong appeal to all to come along on the 25th inst. to spend a few happy hours amongst old and new friends.

Let us hope, then, that this important event will register a record attendance; the Society and their leaders fully deserve it.

Therefore, au revoir at the Dorchester Hotel on the 25th of January. ST.

NOUVELLE SOCIETE HELVETIQUE.
(London Group)

On December 17th, when members and friends met at the Swiss Hostel for Girls, a very happy pre-Christmas mood prevailed. Soft candle-light and evergreen gave hall and lounge a festive appearance. In place of dinner, there was a generous supply of tasty sandwiches and coffee or tea, followed by a delicious sweet.

The second part of the evening was taken up by carol and hymn singing, and a delightful musical entertainment provided by girls of the Hostel.

With members wishing one another a happy Christmas and New Year, the last — and very enjoyable — meeting in 1957 came to a close.
