APPEAL.

Dear Compatriots,

As you no doubt know, one of the big events during our Swiss Fortnight this autumn will be a Charity Ball at the Dorchester Hotel on the 6th of October. The Ball is in aid of the British Pastalozzi Children's Village, and is sponsored by the Anglo-Swiss Society and the Embassy. It is hoped to hand on that occasion to Sir John Wolfenden of Reading University, the Chairman of the British Trust, a substantial donation in order that a "Swiss House" could be built on a property already acquired near Battle, in Sussex — a worthwhile reciprocal gesture for the two British Houses maintained by the Trust at Trogen. Already over £3,000 have been collected, mostly from private donors in Switzerland. It is hoped to raise the rest of the money needed through this Charity Ball. A fashion show and the "Chanson de Lausanne" will help to augment your enjoyment of the ball. There will be a raffle and a tombola with unusually beautiful and valuable prizes. Several gold watches, Swiss hotel vouchers, travel warrants, etc., have already been donated, but many further gifts in kind or money are needed.

The reason for this appeal is to ask for your help and support, so that this first Anglo-Swiss Charity Ball may be a real success. If you telephone or write to the Embassy, the Honorary Secretary of the Ball will send you a detailed leaflet. — There are so many ways in which you can help: by inducing your friends to buy tickets for the Ball (£3.10.0 per person, exclusive of drinks), by coming yourself and bringing a party, by advertising in the souvenir programme (£12.10.0 per quarter page), by sending a gift for the tombola, and/or by sending a donation.

Believe me, anything you can do will be most helpful and, I assure you, most gratefully received.
