CITY SWISS CLUB

95th Annual Banquet and Ball, Friday, 20th November 1959, at the Dorchester Hotel, Park Lane, W.1.

A glut of festivities, such as receptions, lectures, concerts, film and theatre performances, cocktail parties, exhibitions, etc. have just taken place in connection with the "Swiss Fortnight".

Most of these events however, have been of a more general character, and not directly concerning the more intimate social life of the Colony. Bearing this in mind, the City Swiss Club has decided to hold their traditional Annual Banquet and Ball as usual.

This is an event which has always enjoyed a great popularity in the Colony, affording an opportunity to meet the old and younger members of the Club, as well as a number of distinguished personalities of this country.

The committee is anxious to make it a real Swiss evening — without too many speeches — giving everyone an opportunity to indulge in friendly intercourse. They extend a cordial invitation not only to the members of the Club, but to all members of the Swiss Colony in London and the Provinces.

Owing to the quite unexpected great demand for tickets for the Anglo-Swiss Charity Ball, which took place at the Dorchester Hotel, on the 6th of this month, many of our compatriots, who intended to attend had to be disappointed. The Banquet and Ball of the City Swiss Club offers, therefore, a splendid opportunity to make up for this disappointment.

Au revoir then on the 20th of November at the Dorchester Hotel!
