Under "Divers" the president announced that seven applications for membership were to hand, all of them being accepted; he also mentioned that the Association had received nine new rifles from Berne, making altogether fifteen rifles for use. He then presented medals for conspicuous shooting results to Messrs. P. Fischer, M. Bucherer and P. Hess.

Before the close of the Meeting, Mr. Adolf Schmid, on behalf of the members, thanked the president and the committee for their efficient stewardship.

The Meeting was followed by cocktails, and a sumptuous dinner. These dinners at the Glendower Hotel have become famous for their excellence, and judging from the "shining" faces everyone had greatly enjoyed this one, and only reluctantly left the hospitable quarters at Glendower Place.
