On 1st August, Switzerland will celebrate its National Day. The recent happenings in the Near East may have brought home to many the danger a small country is exposed to. The admiration of the brave fight for freedom by the Israeli will be coupled with genuine sympathy with many guiltless victims. It is at a moment like this that the Self-help Solidarity Fund of the Swiss Abroad should receive our attention. We may be safe and snug and comfortable, but should we not think of our less fortunate compatriots who have suffered in many parts of the world? By joining or supporting the Fund, we have a possibility of tangibly expressing our gratitude that a merciful God has spared our country and our particular part of the world. (Enquire from the "Swiss Observer".)
