FROM THE EDITOR

Dear Readers,

Once again you have been very kind and sent me many good wishes and appreciative greetings, lovely calendars and other presents. The almost chronic lack of time has been aggravated by family events — fortunately happy ones — and I find it impossible to answer all the letters and cards individually. But I should like to express my grateful thanks for all your kindness and understanding and your loyal support throughout the year, and I reciprocate your good wishes most sincerely. I look forward to another twelve months of happy relationship with my reading public, my advertisers and my S.O. friends.

Perhaps this is a good moment to say how successful the gift subscription scheme has been, especially that for old-age pensioners who are no longer able to subscribe to the "Swiss Observer" for economic reasons. All those who have kindly responded should know how much such generous gift subscriptions are appreciated. As neither donors nor recipients know the names of the other parties, this seems the appropriate place to express thanks. The many touching letters I receive are ample proof of the value of the scheme. I shall always be glad to receive applications, both on the giving and the receiving side.

A happy 1967!
Yours gratefully,

MM
