50 SWISS BABIES FOR U.K.

Fifty Swiss babies are being sent over from Switzerland to England to arrive here early in the New Year. There is no need to phone the N.S.P.C.C. — the babies being small rotary snow ploughs Model ROLBA "SNOW-BABY" which have been ordered by the Ministry of Defence for snow removal on defence establishments. These Swiss machines can shift up to 60 tons per hour (equal to the work of about 40 snow shovellers) and blow the snow out over a distance of up to 30 feet.

HOLIDAY BY TRAIN AND SHIP

An international travel exhibition will be held at Waterloo Station, London, from 8th to 20th January 1968, under the title "Holidays by Train and Ship". Switzerland is represented with a stand displaying the many aspects of Swiss transport (railways, mountain railways, cableways, lake steamers), as well as Swiss folklore and gastronomy. Spotlights especially provided will add "lumière vivante" to the display. The Swiss stand will not be staffed, but literature and information is available from the Swiss National Tourist Office in the new Swiss Centre, Leicester Square, where four Swiss restaurants have recently been opened. British Railways will organise a film programme for the first week of the exhibition.
