LAC LEMAN

Lac Léman, mirroring the mountains
Reflecting them all, a whole chain,
Picture of life, attracting grandeur
Dispensing to all joy and terror
Life abounding in water and air
Everlastingly, even to-day, who cares!

Lac Léman, keeps its level portion
Sailing down the valley pass Sion
Creeping out of a melting mass
Bound for Genève, the Rhône passes
Out of sight, into sunny France
Right down to the Méditerranéan.

Lac Léman, pre-historiques Shores
Partly buried, unrecorded folklore
Hiding its fatness deep out of sight
In Safety; threatening the right
Of outsiders, in mock-combats
To ignore its name, for Lake Geneva.

Lac Léman, dare them to forget
Let them all band together yet
And in the sight of Almighty
Take it to heart everlastingly
To bar the flow of all pretenders
Born Swiss; leaving free strangers.

1968.

Léopold Schaer.
