new employment. His friends of the Advisory Board of the Employment Department of the Swiss Mercantile Society prevailed upon him to accept nomination for the post of Assistant Manager. He succeeded Mr. J. Pfaendler as Manager when the latter died in 1950. Five years later, the S.K.V. decided to close down the Employment Department.

When Mr. Th. Ritter retired as Secretary of the Swiss Benevolent Society in September 1952, the President, Mr. Anton Bon, approached the Head Office of the S.K.V. Employment Service in Zurich and arranged with them that Mr. Zimmermann be employed by both organisations on a part-time basis. Accordingly, he was elected Secretary of the Swiss Benevolent Society in October 1952, taking up his part-time duties there in November that year. After the close of the S.K.V. Employment Department in 1955, he became full-time Secretary of the Swiss Benevolent Society.

On arrival in London, already Mr. Zimmermann took up various activities in the Swiss Colony. In the course of the years, he has held the following offices: 1915 to 1920, Hon. Assistant Secretary of the City Swiss Club; 1915 to 1918, member and then Hon. Secretary of the "Comité d'Etude pour la création d'une Chambre de Commerce Suisse à Londres", sponsored jointly by the City Swiss Club and the Swiss Mercantile Society; 1918 to 1943, Hon. Secretary of the "Swiss Commission in London for the study of Economic and Commercial Questions" (when the Swiss Authorities decided against the 1915-1918 Committee's proposal of a Swiss Chamber of Commerce, but approved the principle of economic representation and created instead the new post of Commercial Attaché to the Swiss Legation, the Swiss Commission in London, composed of leading Swiss businessmen, was formed as an independent Advisory Board); 1928 to 1929, Hon. Assistant Treasurer of the City Swiss Club; 1929 to 1933, Hon. Secretary of the City Swiss Club; 1939 to 1952, Hon. Treasurer of the "Comité de la Fête Suisse"; 1940 to 1967, Hon. Treasurer of the "Home for Aged Swiss"; 1943 to 1950, member of the "Council for the study of Swiss Problems"; 1945 to 1947, Hon. Treasurer and Secretary of the "First of August Committee"; 1949 to 1952, Hon. Assistant Secretary of the Swiss Benevolent Society; 1950 to 1960, Hon. Secretary of the "Swiss Economic Council"—since 1952 member and since 1960 Vice-President of the Welfare Office for Swiss Girls in Great Britain.

He is a member of the City Swiss Club (Honorary since 1965), Nouvelle Société Helvétique, Swiss Mercantile Society and formerly also of the Swiss Male Choir.

We wish him a very enjoyable birthday and many happy returns of it.
