PIERRE KELLER

All those who have had the pleasure of meeting Pierre, the son of our Ambassador and Madame René Keller, and who know of his physical handicap, will no doubt be thrilled and delighted to learn that he has passed the first part of the "Licence en droit" examinations at Geneva University with high marks. Here, if ever there was one, is a case of a triumph of the mind over an afflicted body, which should give Pierre an enormous moral uplift and all those who are fond of him cause for satisfaction.

To have, as much as possible, disregarded his physical infirmity and concentrated on his law studies with such obvious success is no mean achievement in will power for which he deserves to be congratulated. Soon—for the Swiss Colony in Great Britain far too soon—Pierre will have his parents near him in Switzerland. For him this will, no doubt, be a great comfort. But he should know that he still has many friends in London who wish him well, Swiss and British, and amongst the latter in the forefront the Embassy Chaffeur, Mr. Wilson, who used to escort him with infinite fatherly care and affection.

Gottfried Keller.

THE SWISS Y.M.C.A. IS MOVING

On 1st January, 1971, the Swiss YMCA is moving house. The change of address will be temporary. Our new home for the next three years will be 83 Endell Street, the new Central YMCA Building, and next door to our Swiss Church. The building in Great Russell Street, which we know as the Central YMCA Building is closing its doors at the end of this year.

The Board of the London Central Young Men's Christian Associations (one of which is the Swiss YMCA) has been seriously considering plans for a new building for a long time.

In order to qualify for Government grants which can be obtained towards the cost of residential accommodation, it is necessary to start rebuilding before March 1971, and consequently a decision has been taken to proceed immediately. This opportunity which is too good to be missed means the evacuation of the present Central YMCA Building by the end of 1970. Many readers have happy memories of hours spent in CENTYMCA.

The reopening of the new Central YMCA Building at Great Russell Street is scheduled for summer 1973.

In the meantime, the Swiss YMCA will share all the sports facilities at 83 Endell Street, with our friends of the English Y, for the keen swimmers the Oasis Swimming Pool has been specially hired for the members of the Central YMCA on Monday and Thursday evenings.

Our meeting which is held on Thursday evenings starts at 6.30 and finishes at 8 o'clock, followed by a dip in the pool across the road. We trust that many young Swiss coming to London in the next three years will share our new home and take part in our motto "To look after our Body, Mind and Spirit".
