Congratulations and best wishes, also to any other readers whose birthdays happen to be within the next few weeks.

On 25th June, the former Editor of the Swiss Observer, the late Alfred Stauffer, would be 85, had he lived. He died in 1965, but we should like to remember at this moment the sterling services he rendered the Colony in general and the Swiss Observer in particular, during the three decades and more that he edited it.

AN EVENT NOT TO BE MISSED

Prof. A. von Muralt with the NSH

On Thursday, 20th June, the Swiss community in London will have a unique opportunity of hearing Prof. Alexander von Muralt. He will address the Open Meeting of the London Group of the Nouvelle Société Helvétique on "experiences of Swiss research teams on the Ivory Coast". The subject is in connection with the problem of malnutrition in Africa. The Speaker, an eminent doctor and physiologist, has been connected with both the Nestlé and the Ciba Foundations for many years. Professor of physiology at Berne University and author of many publications as well as a man of many interests, Professor von Muralt is extremely well qualified to speak on the vital work Switzerland had been doing as part of her contribution to international
