NEWS FROM THE COLONY

NATIONAL DAY CELEBRATION IN LIVERPOOL

A 1st August Celebration, even if it is held in the middle of July, is not only an anniversary to be feted but a most important national feast for the Swiss abroad.

So it was again a joyful reunion for Swiss parents and children of the Liverpool area, and also some very warmly welcomed guests from the Yorkshire Swiss Club, at the Dresden Hotel, Bromborough. Swiss Laendler music, white and red carnations, "Lichtbecher" and lots of lanterns with the emblems of Switzerland and the cantons had changed the room into a corner of Switzerland on a 1st August evening. The tables laid with beautiful place mats from Appenzell looked very inviting indeed. In these surroundings the Schueblig and potato salad, prepared by our genial host Mr. Thomas Zueger, tasted even better than it would in a nice garden restaurant in Switzerland on a warm summer evening. Also Trifle and Meringue Christine never fail to gladden the hearts of our members.

At this Celebration we had the honour of the first visit of our new Consul-General, Mr. H. Jaques, and his most charming wife. He gave a short resume of the question of a new canton Jura and the working of the Swiss Democracy.

The cool Fechy set us in a mood for a good old-fashioned Swiss sing-song. And though we may not all be prima donnas and heldentenoere everybody certainly enjoyed the well-known songs we once learnt at school. Perhaps for a moment they made us feel a bit more Swiss than we do in the bustle of everyday life and this cannot be a bad thing at the National Day Celebrations where we should remember those brave men who met on the Ruetli on the 1st August, 1291.

WELL DONE, WILLI LANDAUER OF ST. GALLEN!

As reported in the Financial Times and other leading papers, we are pleased to announce that Mr. W. W. Landauer, the Chairman and Managing Director of Airguard Ltd., has been appointed to the Board of Directors of Lawtex Clothing Ltd. A short time ago, Airguard was taken over by Lawtex and the appointment of Mr. Landauer as a Director of Lawtex has resulted in the formation of one of the largest manufacturing groups in the field of Industrial Clothing in the British Isles. It is commendable that Mr. Landauer, still a Swiss National and one of our most successful industrialists, having reached an age when many top executives contemplate retiring (the mid-sixties), meets the challenge of this new appointment with tremendous vigour, enthusiasm and determination which will undoubtedly achieve even a wider scope for the activities of the Group as a whole and thereby lead to the employment of many more hundreds of people than already work in both Companies. We wish him success and send him our gratitude for what he has done for the good name of a Swiss: Honesty, Work, Tenacity and Humility.

TWO GOLDEN WEDDINGS

We have great pleasure in announcing the golden weddings of Mr. and Mrs. A. Kunzler, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wetter, who are among our faithful readers and have supported us for many years.

Mr. Arnold Kunzler of 31 Dolphin Court, Rustington, Sussex, and Mrs.

Arnold Kunzler (formerly Miss Nolte, from Basle) married fifty years ago on 22nd August, 1924, two years before the founding of MAT Transport Ltd., one of the major transport firms of this country which Mr. Kunzler has managed until his retirement.

Mr. John C. Wetter and Edith Wetter, of 8 Carew Road, Northwood, Middlesex, celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary on 1st August (Swiss National Day).

To them all, we should like to express our warmest congratulations and hope that they will enjoy many more years of happiness together.

P.M.B.
