A flight to South America Luc

"And that's just the reason why I booked Supersuiço."

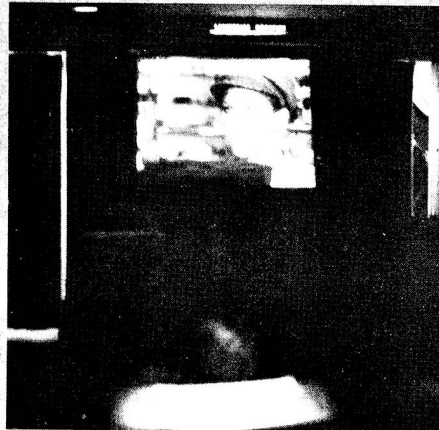

You can be choosy over your Supersuiço brunch.

The non-smokers like to keep to themselves.

Tête-à-tête.

No films you saw two months ago.

Dreaming of São Paulo.

Three hours more to get ready for the meeting.

9 down: River in Argentina.

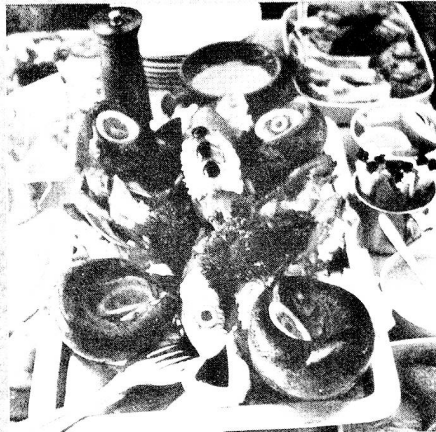

All the comforts of home.

can take a little longer. kily.

Best wishes from Swissairland.

Hors d'oeuvre in First Class.

Luggage in the compartments is always ready to hand. But never in the way.

Space to work above the clouds.

Eight musical programmes from beat to Beethoven.

Leg and elbow room.

Service leaving nothing to be desired.

Good morning, Rio.

Swissair flies a modern, spacious, and comfortable DC-10 once a week, a DC-8 twice a week to Rio, Sao Paulo, Buenos Aires, and Santiago. It costs no more. The connections from London are good — and you can travel in style. Isn't that wonderful?
