LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Sir,

I wonder if one of your Swiss readers would provide me with a recipe of the original "Aprikosenkuchen" (the flat apricot tart sold in so many patisseries in Switzerland).

After many enjoyable holidays spent in this lovely country I have been able to find only one recipe which claims to be "Aprikosenkuchen" but this particular mixture is of a cake-like texture whereas the one I wish to find includes the sweet flan pastry case.

I look forward with great interest to your future publications as my husband and I enjoy the varied topics which your magazine covers so well.

Sir,

May I call on all Swiss women who are married to non-Swiss, and their children to write to Berne if these children would like to be also Swiss citizens, as may be the case when the father is a Swiss. Mention of this first appeared in the January issue of the Swiss Observer, however I am sure there are some Swiss women who may not have seen it. The address is: Secretariat of the Swiss Abroad, Alpenstrasse 26, CH - 3000 Berne 16.

There is no obligation whatsoever and all correspondence will be referred to the committee of a group of Swiss from Great Britain who are treating this problem.

On behalf of this committee, I remain sincerely yours,

Deirdre Birch
