Our little corner of Hyde Park.

In a manner that can only be described as dedicated, the Inn on the Park has carved quite a niche for itself just off Park Lane.

Not only as quite the most beautiful hotel in London, but also the perfect place to wine and dine.

There are two splendid bars and one of the few really civilised lounges left in London, where you can take your favourite beverage and nibble something delicious. For incurable romantics we have a superb nightspot, the Vintage Room, which is somewhere exclusive to wine dine and dance inclusive and at lunch time also offers the businessman an unbeatable fixed price menu. And for the true gourmets, the Four Seasons Room is unquestionably one of Europe's finest restaurants.

The Four Seasons Room

When it comes to the big occasion, there's no finer place to be than the Inn on the Park. From 4 to 400, wedding receptions, 21st parties, even the occasional 'soiree de gala' take on the special character of an event when placed in our expert hands.

All in our little corner of Hyde Park.
