Every week Swissair

9 times to Istanbul

7 times to Damascus,

Tel Aviv, 7 times to Bag

7 times to Abu Dhabi, 7 ti

Jeddah, 7 times to D

And 67 times from Britain

These days there's nothing more valuable than good business connections with the Middle East. And as you'd expect from a country of businessmen, Swissair is better connected than most.

We offer you 42 flights a week to 12 of the biggest business centres of the Middle East. Including a new service to Jeddah. And non-stop flights by DC10 from Switzerland to Cairo, Tel Aviv and Jeddah.

As you can see from any map, Switzerland is on a direct line from Britain to most Middle East centres. And with 7 flights a day from London alone to Geneva and Zurich you won't waste time waiting for connections.

And if you're leaving Manchester or Dublin, you could well find that taking our and Ireland to Switzerland.

morning direct flight to Zurich will get you to the Middle East quicker than going via London.

Either way, you'll find that Swissair know how to make a business journey seem as short as possible, both on the ground and in the air.

What else would you expect from the businessmen's airline?

So next time you're doing business in the Middle East, make sure you have the best connections. Ask your travel agent to book you Swissair.
